

Morales Memo

January 2015

We enter the New Year with thanksgiving and expectancy. We are so thankful for our friends and family. Together we are making a difference in the lives of many people. As we continue our time of connecting, God is opening doors of opportunity to reach the lost and serve His people.

Children celebrate Christmas

This past Christmas season we had the opportunity to serve the children of the Good Shepherd Christian Schools of the Assemblies of God in Panama (LACC schools). We helped in identifying, purchasing, gift wrapping and delivering over 300 Christmas gifts to some of the children sponsored through Latin America Child Care (LACC). For many, this was the only Christmas gift they would receive. It brought so much joy to each child. It was a perfect way to show them that God gave us the greatest "Christmas gift" when He sent His Son Jesus to be our Savior.

Teaching, training, and equipping

We continue to partner in the ongoing task of discipleship and training. This semester, Miguel will be teaching two courses at the Assemblies of God Bible Schools in Panama. He is also working together with national leaders to implement intentional discipleship ministries in local churches that will help cultivate spiritual growth and awaken a call to service and ministry. We are also looking forward to teaching and sharing with Panamanian missionary candidates at the upcoming national School of Missions.

In September, Miguel had the privilege of serving and teaching at the International Bible School Leaders Summit in Uruguay. In November, he coordinated and taught in a seminar for Bible School professors in Costa Rica. Leaders and educators were encouraged and received needed tools to continue training workers. Similar seminars are scheduled this year in Panama, Chile, Nicaragua, Argentina, Costa Rica and others. Also, a Summit will be held in Dominican Republic in September 2015.
