CURRENT MINISTRY

The Morales family's mission is to reach, train and mobilize a new generation of ministry leaders in Panama and throughout Latin America.

Their main ministry focuses include:

- Resource & Advisory Center: Serve Bible Schools throughout Latin America by enabling leadership, equipping educators and providing resources.
- Bible Schools: Teach in different Bible Schools, training and mentoring a new generation of ministry leaders.
- Missions Mobilization: Partner with national church to become fully engaged in cross-cultural missions, equipping and mobilizing a new generation of missionaries from Panama.
- Indigenous Ministries: Conduct outreach, discipleship and training among indigenous ethnic groups in remote areas of Panama.

PRIOR MINISTRY

Previously, the Morales family was teaching in different Bible schools in Costa Rica. They launched and directed a growing discipleship ministry in local churches. They were also involved in establishing a new department for indigenous outreach, discipleship, and training in remote areas.
